EXCEPTIONAL EGYPT TRAVEL

DESCRIPTION

While staying in Luxor, you are within easy reach of Dendera Temple — one of the most extraordinary and underrated temples in Egypt.
Dating back to the 2nd century BC and completed during the reign of Queen Cleopatra VII, the temple is famous for its beautifully preserved reliefs showing Cleopatra alongside her son Caesarion.
Dendera Temple is dedicated to Hathor, the goddess of love, music, joy, and motherhood. It is widely recognized for its astronomical and astrological ceiling scenes, including the famous zodiac representations.
The temple is also known for having one of the best-preserved roofs in Egypt, unique rooftop access through ancient stairways, and a rare ancient calendar system carved into its walls.
This experience combines history, culture, and local hospitality with a traditional Egyptian lunch served by a local family near the temple.
